

ZCE-100-B

Base for 100 series black detectors

Description

The ZCE-100 base series has been designed for use with the full range of Easy-Detect detectors. Its European design makes the ZCE-100 range, an ideal option for those installations where a balance between functionality and aesthetics is necessary.

ZCE-100 series base are injected in ABS plastic with 4 stainless steel contacts and two separate openings for the input and output of the connections, thus becoming a comfortable socket for the user. With its low profile it is Ideal for surface installations. Black color.

Applications

Ideal base for all types of surfaces and environments due to its non-porous injection and easy cleaning.

Features

- Made in Spain
- Low Profile
- Parallel indicator output
- Compatible with all ranges of Easy-Detect detectors

Technical Features

CONNECTION 2 x 1,5 mm² braided and shielded connection

PHYSICAL FEATURES Base (height x diameter): 22 x 104 mm
Material: ABS

Dimensions

